Charles Chillingworth, Captain Preston, Captain Chamberlain, Captain Freeman, Major and Mrs. Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. Johnston, Miss Marjory Allen, Dr. and Mrs. Tuttle and others.

Mrs. W. L. Stanley, wife of Judge Stanley, gave a luncheon yesterday at her home on Fort street.

Shasta daisies and maidenhair ferns placed in silver vases in different parts of the table was the mode of decoration used on the occasion.

Those invited were Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Kingsbury, Mrs. Eckart, Mrs. Clay, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. James Wilder and Lady Heron.

The dance given by the Merchants' Association to the sailors of the Pacific fleet at the Young Hotel last night was largely attended and everyone seemed to be having a good time.

A reception was held during the early part of the evening, in which Mr. Ollie Swain, vice president of the Merchants' Association, and Mrs. Swain, Admiral and Mrs. Thomas, Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, Governor Frear and Miss Cowles, Captain and Mrs. Carter, Captain and Mrs. Marx received.

Nearly two thousand people were present, the roof garden was filled, and both dancing pavilions were kept in use throughout the evening.

A light punch was served during the evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey, always artistic, was never more beautiful than last night, when, decorated in the most gorgeous exor-las and poinsettias, intermingled with Christmas wreaths and festoons of green, a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood M. Lowrey was given.

It was one of the largest receptions given in Honolulu for some time, and everyone who received an invitation attended.

The rooms of the spacious home were all filled throughout the evening. A large lanai had been built for the occasion and covered with feathery bamboo. This was used for the refreshment room.

To describe the gowns worn by Honolulu's best dressed women on this occasion would be almost impossible, but everyone was well gowned and in his best mood.

Mrs. Frederick Lowrey wore a handsome imported evening gown of mauve mousseline over satin, both heavily embroidered. The bride wore her wedding gown of crepe satin with Brussels applique.

Those receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mr. Arthur Wall, Dr. and Mrs. Morse, the Misses Kopke, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Helen Grwin, Miss Ethel Bishop, Miss Muriel Howatt, Messrs. George Fuller, B. Mist, W. Ryecroft, Dr. Hedeman, Ed Hedeman and Mr. W. R. Castle.

Noticed among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Judge and Mrs. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Marx, Mr. and Mrs. Harry von Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wall, Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Gignaux, Mr. and Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, Mr. Clarence Cooke, Mr. Richard Cooke, Madam Brunchorst, Mr. and Mrs. Hanneberg, Mr. and Mrs. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Kopke, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Z. K. Myers, Mrs. James McLean and Mrs. T. McLean of Porto Rico, Dr. and Mrs. Moore, Miss Nancy Malone, Miss Knapp, Miss Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Foeke, Mr. and Mrs. Faxon Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. Agnes Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Judd, Mr. Stanley Kennedy, Mr. H. F. Wichman, Mr. Frederick Wichman, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown, Mrs. Annie Lackland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halstead, Admiral and

THE THEATERS

BIJOU, EMPIRE AND SAVOY RUNNING TONIGHT.

The large crowds that will be around town tonight will not want for theatrical entertainment, as the Bijou, Empire and Savoy will have exceptionally good programs.

At the Bijou the Hughes Musical Comedy Company will be seen in "Monte Carlo," a sporty play with clever repartee by the comedians and good singing and dancing by Miss Edwards and Miss Guy, ably assisted by the chorus. A visit to this theater tonight will prove a very pleasant way of spending an hour and a half.

Madame Lloyd will make her farewell appearance at the Empire tonight, as she leaves in the Wilhelmina Wednesday morning for San Francisco, where she will sign up with the Sullivan & Considine people for a prolonged engagement. She has had a very successful season here and will no doubt be given an ovation on her last public appearance in Honolulu. Frances and Bence, the dancers and impersonators, will appear in a refined sketch with good legitimate comedy and dancing.

The Savoy, while making a specialty of motion pictures, will have a couple of vaudeville turns. Manager Magoon has selected a very choice assortment of pictures for tonight, with variety enough to please the masses. For those who enjoy pictures the Savoy will be the place tonight. In addition to the above, the management has secured the West Virginia quartet for the evening. They will be heard in all the latest songs. They were the hit of the evening at the Bijou on Monday night. Their singing is a rare treat.

New Year's Matinee.

Monday being New Year's Day a special matinee will be given at the Bijou theater at two-thirty, with the occasion and covered with feathery bamboo. This was used for the refreshment room.

The scene of the play is laid in Paris and is centered around a cafe with elaborate settings. The regulation evening dress is very much in evidence. Even the chorus girls will appear in toilette de sole. The company is well cast in this play, every member being seen to advantage. The same bill will be on in the evening.

The nightly change will be continued this week, which, by the way, will be the last week of the Hughes company, as they close on January 6 and leave for Hilo on the Mauna Kea the following Tuesday. After a short engagement at Hilo they will make a flying trip to Maui, where they will give a few performances.

The Hughes Musical Comedy Company have become very popular here and they are closing a very successful season. They gave Honolulu audiences what was wanted, and the Honolulu public showed its appreciation by turning out en masse at every new show. The Hughes company has set a high standard, and it is hoped that the Honolulu Amusement Company's management will keep the standard by getting more companies of the Hughes caliber.

The Empire's Matinee.

The eleven o'clock matinee introduced at the Empire on Thanksgiving Day will be repeated on New Year's Day. A series of performances will be given, commencing at the hour above stated, and running through the afternoon, or as long as patronage warrants it. This will prove a very interesting place for children, as a number of pictures will be put on for their especial benefit.

SOCIAL NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drew and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Drew expect to spend New Year's Day at Haleiwa.

Johan Alfred Durup is one of the outgoing passengers on the Wilhelmina next Wednesday. Mr. Durup has made a much longer sojourn than he expected, and thoroughly enjoyed the island life. He has visited Kaula, Maui and Hawaii during his stay and made delightful studies of the island life as well as the charming portraits of children and grown-ups that may be found in many of Honolulu's beautiful homes.

Miss Helen Achilles is giving a swimming party and dinner at the country home of ex-Governor Carter today.

Maternity Home will have its Christmas party on January 6, 1912, from two to five o'clock p. m., for which invitations have been issued. The trustees will be glad to welcome all home babies and their chaperones.

A dinner in honor of Captain and Mrs. Harlow will be given by General and Mrs. Macomb on next Thursday night.

Mrs. Charles Drew, the bride of the purser of the Wilhelmina, was a passenger on the Wilhelmina to Hilo yesterday.

Mrs. Walter Dillingham gave a Christmas tree to the children at Watertown. A hundred and sixty children were present.

Miss Chamberlain of Boise, Idaho, who has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas at Wahiawa, has returned to the Hawaiian Hotel.

Lieutenant Connors of the South

Dakota is giving a dinner tomorrow on that vessel to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Friedley, Mr. and Mrs. Winston and Mr. and Mrs. Dellors.

General and Mrs. Macomb will be at home from three until six on New Year's Day. No invitations have been issued, but they expect to see all of their friends.

Mrs. L. Tenney Peck is giving a dinner to fifteen this evening in honor of Judge and Mrs. Kingsbury of Maui, who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peck.

The table will be decorated in holiday colors, poinsettia flowers and ferns and candle shade to match will form the motif of the decoration.

The round table will be used, to which the following people will sit: Judge and Mrs. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCandless, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Judge and Mrs. Stanley, Lady Heron, Mr. and Mrs. Prosser, Captain Elliott, Mrs. Locke and Mr. and Mrs. Peck.

After dinner there will be music in the music room.

The dance given at Fort Shafter last night was held in the Administration building, which had been decorated for the occasion by quantities of bunting intermingled with potted palms and ferns.

The Second Infantry band furnished the music.

Among those present were Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, General and Mrs. Macomb, Captain and Mrs. Marx, Mr. Anderson, Major and Mrs. Timberlake, Captain and Mrs. Johnston, Captain and Mrs. Gill U. S. N., Lieutenant Commander Warren J. Terhune, Captain and Mrs. Gibson, Captain and Mrs. Watson, Captain Jackson of Lethua, Mr. and Mrs. McStocker, the Misses McStocker, Lieutenant and Mrs. Turner, Senator and Mrs.

Nemo THE ONE AMERICAN CORSET SOLD IN PARIS

WOMEN who have worn the Nemo will understand why the greatest stores in Paris and London are now making a leading specialty of Nemo Corsets.

Nemos have won pre-eminence in the Fashion Capitals of the world by sheer force of unequalled merit.

They have transferred the centre of the world's corset industry from Paris to New York.

There is a Reason for this World-Wide Success

Nemo Corsets outwear all others—that's ECONOMY. They are strong, but feel light and easy—because they FIT THE FORM. They REDUCE any figure to the limit, yet are comfortable in all positions—that's the LASTING WEARING. And Paris herself says that Nemos are the acme of good style. WEAR A NEMO!
